Good afternoon.

As we discussed in previous calls, EPA has prepared memos that document our rationale for determining that an LAR issue is resolved. As such, I have attached the memos for the 6 issues that have been determined to be resolved (as reflected on the July status chart). We intend to post these to our website to show progress toward resolution of the LAR issues. As you are reviewing the documents you will see that we include information on: the original LAR issue, EPA's analysis (and/or comparison between federal and state provisions), public hearing and comments (if applicable), EPA's conclusions, and additional notes (as necessary).

Also, as we complete our review of the issues that are currently in house, we will be summarizing our review in similar documents.

Please let the LAR team or I know if you have questions on these memos. I look forward to talking to you all next week.

Candice
